

Thinking back on your AC term of service, what will history say about you in your service? What legacy will you leave?

I supported the community during a pandemic

the legacy of believing in yourself and anything can be possible. your background does not define you, the future is what you make it

I grew great people into great community leaders.

History will say about us would be volunteers willing to help out their community . Being able to be there for my low income families .

You've made an impact.

I made a difference in my community

Families will remember you.

What I am leaving behind is the relationships and connects built not just through the visitation but also with the other families involved! The families built a community

Thinking back on your AC term of service, what will history say about you in your service? What legacy will you leave?

The difference that I made in the many families that I served, and the community that I served.

AmeriCorps has stepped in to provide services to their foster and homeless youth that prepares them for adulthood.

Future employment support! We had some great members! They stepped up to the plate, new and returning members!

I helped a mom get out of DV

That it's possible too get things done! Lol

Advocacy and unwavering support!

Excellence.

I hope I was able to inspire and motivate those who I served and worked with Empathetic and dedicated! Their legacy!

She was always available and ready to serve and be festive and feed everyone sweets n treats along the way.

Being Their For My Families During The Pandemic Who Still Was In Need Of Supplies And Resources...

You came along way. My legacy would be I made great connections with families

Reliable

A Legacy of support , good tears, and awesome friends and coworkers!

You empowered our families to be better

You are the difference in our families lives!

You were awesome! You provided a community service for parents facing difficulty and afraid of losing their children. You support them thru it all and with love in your heart. You were a champion for the children you taught and the parents you served

The legacy of trying to help others in a time of need.

Thinking back on your AC term of service, what will history say about you in your service? What legacy will you leave?

You made an impact and dedicated time, love and support to helping our families.

That is takes unity and cultural humility to serve a community

That it possible to get thing things done no matter what the pandemic throw this way!

Encouraging and supporting students during a difficult and distant years. Made sure they knew they mattered.

I would hope that I am remembered by the services provided in the community during the 2020-2021 pandemic working diligently provide at our food pantry. And remembered by the students I mentored as a person that really cared and accompanied them

History will say that I made it! That I existed and left my imprint. I treated every client as family and helped them overcome many milestones and challenges they were

I learned how to handle whatever came my way and tackle more than I ever thought.

History of change to those families in need in our community, and to always be there when needed.

I enjoy service other family and enjoy be people. I also i want thankful my co work , I learn commutates in time in need .
